The invocation was given by Brad Holmes, First Baptist Church.

Mr. Miller introduced promotions: Martin Birkenfeld as the new Chief of Police, Laura Storrs as the new Assistant City Manager, and Kevin Starbuck as the new Deputy City Manager.

Mr. Miller presented the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) Distinguished Budget Presentation Award Program. Michelle Bonner thanked the Finance Department for their continued work on the budget. Ms. Storrs stated this is the 28th time the City of Amarillo has received this award.

Mayor Nelson established a quorum, called the meeting to order, welcomed those in attendance and the following items of business were conducted:

PUBLIC ADDRESS

Michael Ford, 7005 Alpine Lane, questioned Item 3D. He questioned what was required and what the $5,000 to businesses would entail. He stated the newspaper stated the businesses (promotional partners) would be required to show their Facebook posts. He stated it was far above what social media costs. He further stated that part of the City pillars was fiscal responsibility. James Schenck, 6216 Gainsborough Road, stated he was also concerned about Item 3D. He inquired if these monies for promotional purposes were outside the purview of tax. He inquired where the one million dollars was coming from. He further stated there was no form attached, and they needed to be more transparent. There were no further comments.
